ANIMALS

I love animals so much and I've been wanting to have a dog really badly, but all my mom would say is no! I gave her hundreds of species or why my sisters and I need one and want one. A dog is the most caring loyal animal that would be towards us. Its all love and I feel like if I had my own so many things would change. It would be a good change. I know that we are all animals, mammals, and that we should all be kind to each other. Which is a good thing because just like humans, other animals deserve only nice things in life and treat animals with love and care because we all have feelings, and emotions. Those people who don't know how and think of animals/pets in a way of nothing do I deserve to have one. It would put them in danger and thats not fair or good. Everyone in the world deserves to be happy either your a chihuahua or an old lady, we all deserve respect and love.
