My Favorite... sucks

My favorite character from Vampire Diaries sucks. His name is Damon and at first I hated him and wanted him off the show. But I guess its coz I relate to him a lot and didn't even notice, hes funny in awkward or not right situations. He's my favorite because even though everyone thinks hes an asshole, he really just cares too much for the people he loves like me. So yes he sucks in the eyes of others but to me he is amazing because hes realistic and very loving. I always hear girls about him but I dont care hes my favorite.
