1. Summarize the purpose/main idea of this literacy narrative in 1-2 sentences.

People see things with a different perspective, and when Nicole went to Thailand she explained how the people were full of kindness and gentleness no matter what problems were going on. The people there motivated her to be a leader and to know how valuable it is to influence others to be better in life

2. List three different aspects you enjoyed from this piece (Structure, Content/Topic, Tone, POV, etc...) and why they worked for you?

- The structure begins when she was first visiting Thailand, and throughout the piece it shows the growth she had while being there surrounded by many wonderful people.
- I loved the point of view in this piece because it showed how the Foreign atmosphere that she discovered for several weeks had a huge impact towards Nicole.
- I found this content interesting because it caught my eye and its something not many people do, which is travel to unknown places and learn valuable things that can make someone change their lives.

3. What is the significance of this experience? Is that important to you? Why/why not?

The significance of this experience is to let the readers know that there's harsh places around the world, but people still manage to see the good things in life. To me that's important because people tend to worry about themselves and having that New York life of working for hours and getting to your job then home. It's a nonstop pattern just to survive, when we should be grateful for what we have and spread out kindness, love to others.

4. Setting - Where does this narrative/experience take place? Are the locations well described? How?

In the beginning this experience takes place on the airplane when she was looking outside her window to hr showing us Thailand. It was well described because she gave me a view of what its like being there by explaining the century old temples, and some of the cultural surroundings that were eye-opening and viewed nicely and peaceful.

5. Characters – Who are the main characters and what are their relationships to one another? Are there too many, or, is anyone missing?
